Matters Concerning the Decision on Titles to Enemy Property in China
Requested for Deliberation by the Minister of Greater East Asia as per the Attached.

The above to be submitted to the Cabinet Meeting.

DRAFT OF INSTRUCTIONS

Matters concerning the decision on titles to enemy property in China
as requested for deliberation.

IPS Doc. No. 3513-D Item 5

SHI-SO No. 9

Matters Concerning the Decision on Titles to Enemy Property in China.

It is necessary as shown in the annexed paper to fix the limit of powers of the Committee For Disposition of Special Property which was created in the Ministry of Greater East Asia in accordance with the Cabinet decision of December 9, 1942 "Matters Concerning Establishment of the Committee For Disposition of Special Property". Therefore, I hereby submit a statement of reasons.

I present the above matters to the Cabinet Meeting for deliberation.

January 14, 1943

Minister of Greater East Asia AOKI, Kazuo

: the seal of :
: the Minister:
: of Greater :

To: Prime Minister TOJO, Hideki

Matters Concerning the Decision on Titles to Enemy Property in China

The titles to enemy property in China shall be determined by the decision of the Committee For Disposition of Special Property; items of great importance, however, shall be approved by the decision of the Cabinet meeting.

When decisions have been made by the aforementioned Committee or by the Cabinet meeting, all government offices concerned shall adopt the necessary measures to put them into effect.

Statement of Reasons

On the ground that there are doubtful points concerning the extent of the powers of the Committee For Disposition of Special Property which was created in the Greater East Asia Ministry in accordance with the Cabinet decision of December 9, 1942 "Matters Concerning Establishment of the Committee For Disposition of Special Property".

Matters Concerning Establishment of The Committee For Disposition of Special Property

9 December 1942
Cabinet Decision

A Committee For Disposition of Special Property shall be established in accordance with the regulations in the attached sheets in order to investigate important matters concerning property (to become part of the government revenue, with the exception of that reserved by the War or Navy Ministers, in accordance with Article 28 of the War Booty and Prize Court Ordinance) belonging to enemy nations, enemy aliens and corporations financed by the enemy, and concerning the disposition and management of special property, in the Empire's theater of operations.

NOTE:

When the local organs of the Greater East Asia Ministry find it necessary, a committee corresponding to the Committee For Disposition of Special Property shall be established.

Items of special importance which have been approved by this committee shall be approved by decision of the Cabinet meeting.

Regulations of the Committee For Disposition of Special Property

- Art. 1. The Committee for Disposition of Special Property shall be established in the Ministry of Greater East Asia in order to investigate important matters concerning property (to become part of the government revenue, with the exception of that reserved by the War or Navy Ministers, in accordance with Article 28 of the War Booty and Prize Court Ordinance) belonging to enemy nations, enemy aliens, and corporations financed by the enemy, and concerning the disposition and management of special property in the Empire's theater of operations.
- Art. 2. The Committee shall be composed of a chairman and several committee-members.
It may have extra committee-members in case of special need.
- Art. 3. The Minister of Greater East Asia shall be appointed chairman.
- Art. 4. Committee-members and extra committee-members shall be designated or appointed by the Minister of Greater East Asia from among Higher Civil Service officials of offices concerned.
- Art. 5. The chairman shall preside over the affairs of the Committee.
In case of an accident to the chairman, a committee-member designated by the Minister of Greater East Asia will act for him.
- Art. 6. If the Minister of Greater East Asia considers it necessary, he may compel Higher Civil Service officials of the offices concerned, or any other person considered suitable, to attend the meetings and express their opinions.
- Art. 7. The Committee shall have a chief secretary and secretaries. It may have extra secretaries in case of special need.

The Chief of the General Affairs Bureau, Ministry of Greater East Asia, shall be appointed chief secretary and will administer the business of the Committee at the chairman's pleasure.

Secretaries and extra secretaries shall be designated or appointed by the Minister of Greater East Asia from among Higher Civil Service officials of offices concerned. They will coordinate the business of the Committee at their superior officials' pleasure.

Art. 8. The Committee shall have secretaries, to be designated by the Minister of Greater East Asia from among the HANNIN-rank officials of offices that deal with the Ministry of Greater East Asia. These secretaries shall be engaged in general affairs at their superior officials' pleasure.

Art. 9. All matters concerning the Committee, such as its establishment, etc., shall be kept secret.

Re Request for Promulgation of the Japan-Burma Alliance Treaty.

As the Alliance Treaty between Japan and Burma will probably be signed soon, I hereby respectfully request you to be so kind as to make due arrangements to promulgate it in the "Official Gazette" as soon as possible upon the signatures to the said Treaty being duly affixed.

Enclosed herewith please find a draft of the Promulgation.

(1 of 3 parts)

I will instantly notify you accordingly when the signatures have been duly affixed, advising you also of the date and manner of signature. Moreover, I have duly sent you the following documents concerning the Draft of the Promulgation:

1. Two copies of Draft of Imperial Edict
2. Five copies of Japanese Text of Treaty

PROMULGATION

Having duly met with the approval of the Privy Council we hereby sanction the Treaty of Alliance between Japan and Burma signed at Rangoon by the Japanese Special Envoy Plenipotentiary as well as the Prime Minister of Burma on August 1, 1943, and promulgate same herewith.

Name and Seal of the Emperor.

TREATY TEXT

Treaty No.

Alliance Treaty between Japan and Burma

Whereas the Japanese Government has recognized Burma as an independent sovereign state; whereas the two countries have the intent to pursue joint constructive efforts in Greater East Asia, thereby contributing to the world's peace at large, based upon justice, both countries mutually respecting each other's sovereignty and independence, and in close cooperation with all the Powers,

The Imperial Government of Japan and the Government of Burma, with a firm and irrevocable determination to eradicate all the roots of evils forming stumblingblocks towards the accomplishment of this end, have agreed upon the following:

Doc. 3513-E

Article 1.

Japan and Burma, for the complete prosecution of the war of Greater East Asia, shall make all possible cooperation in the military, political as well as economic fields.

Article 2.

Japan and Burma, in a joint constructive effort for the autonomous development, aiming at the co-prosperity of all the nations in Greater East Asia and also for the growth and prosperity of Greater East Asia at large, shall closely cooperate with each other.

Article 3.

As regards the details relative to the enforcement of this Treaty, the authorities concerned of both nations shall, whenever necessity arises, confer and decide matters.

Article 4.

The present Treaty shall be put into force from the date of signing.

In Witness Whereof, the undersigned, duly authorized by their respective Governments, have affixed their signatures and seals thereto.

Done in duplicate in _____ on the _____ day of the _____ month of the _____ year of Showa, corresponding to the _____ day of
